Dahlia 8 is a one bedroom apartment in the Seefeld area, on the corner of one of the many side streets of Seefeldstrasse. The special lay out of the flat has got a cosy and at the same time practical charm. There is a big window in the bathroom which lets in plenty of light. The lounge is in a long rectangle form, providing a nice perspective and looks even bigger than it actually is. The balcony faces the backyard with a lovely view. Also the bedroom offers a spacious and comfortable area. The neighbourhood is very popular as it is central and offers a countless number of options for shopping, eating and drinking or simply spending a good time. The tram station Höschgasse is right at the door and the train station Stadelhofen with connections to all parts of Zurich can also be reached quickly.
